

From Subject to Citizen

Nona Plessner Lyons, Course Director

Education Development Center

Cambridge, Massachusetts

Copyright © 1970

From Subject to Citizen

QUEEN ELIZABETH: CONFLICT AND COMPROMISE
THE KING VS. THE COMMONS
THE EMERGENCE OF THE AMERICAN
THE MAKING OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION
WE THE PEOPLE

The idea for this course originated with Henry Bragdon, Elting E. Morison and Franklin Patterson.

The game of "Empire" was developed by Robert Brandfon, Joseph Featherstone, Nona Plessner Lyons, Edmund S. Morgan and Peter Wolff of the Education Development Center Social Studies Curriculum Program. Clark Abt of Abt Associates was consultant to Education Development Center. "Empire" is a part of The Emergence of the American unit prepared by Education Development Center under the direction of Mr. Edmund S. Morgan, Sterling Professor of History, Yale University, and Mrs. Nona Plessner Lyons, Course Director.

Developed by Education Development Center, Inc.

Produced by  KDI Instructional Systems, Inc.,
Columbus, Ohio

Copyright © 1970 Education Development Center, Inc.,
Cambridge, Massachusetts (Also copyright 1964, 1965)

EDC is committed to making our work, and the results of our work, available and accessible to the public. Our staff includes over 1,700 scientists, educators, mathematicians, researchers, administrators and health professionals, and many are internationally known experts in their fields. Areas we address include early child development; violence and suicide prevention, mathematics and science education, online learning, and technology in education. Year 2013

Contact: If you would like to contact EDC, please use the form below or send e-mail to contact@edc.org. We'll respond promptly.

*Education Development Center, Inc.
43 Foundry Avenue Waltham, MA 02453-8313, USA
Boston - Chicago - New York - Washington, DC*

The Making of the American Revolution