

TRUMP: IT'S AN ILL BIRD THAT FOULS ITS OWN NEST

Robert F. Lyons, Kennebunk.

New York Times - Posted on-line - November 11, 2020

RE: The Times Called Officials in Every State: No Evidence of Voter Fraud.

THE ONLY SERIOUS EVIDENCE OF VOTER FRAUD appears to be that of a Pennsylvania man who forged his dead mother's signature on his request for an absentee ballot. And that man was a registered Republican. Even so, that was more an act of love than an act of voter fraud. But, Trump's outrageous denial of President-elect Joe Biden's overwhelming majority of votes, goaded on by his sycophant supporters in Congress is but another confirmation of the ancient proverb: It's an ill bird that fouls its own nest. On January 21st, when the newly elected president takes his oath of office to abide by the Constitution, the final cleansing of the contaminated White House coop will be completed. It will be morning in America, once again.