An application for a contract zone that would allow an 80-room hotel abutting Federal Jack's (the area shown here across the river) has been withdrawn.

Developer David Bateman shows projects similar to the proposal in Lower Village during a July 28 Planning Board meeting. That proposal has since been withdrawn.

Residents brace for next step

“Having lived here this 40-plus years I am quite certain that like the morning tide it will come again in some form.”
